Budget-Conscious Student Traveler

Arjun Mehta

Budget-Conscious Student Traveler

Age: 24
Education: MSc Computer Science (in progress)
Hometown: Pune, India
Family: Single
Occupation: Grad student & part-time TA

"I want to explore the city without exceeding my budget or wasting time between places."

GOALS

- Stay within a fixed trip budget
- Still see the important attractions
- Cut travel time between stops

FRUSTRATIONS

- Generic plans suggest costly activities
- Recommended places are far apart
- Prices and hours are often outdated

What our app must provide: Budget-aware ranking · Verified hours & costs · Walking limit

Arjun travels between semesters on a tight budget. He researches for hours across blogs and maps but still ends up backtracking and overspending. He wants a plan that respects his budget and keeps each day efficient, so he sees more with less stress.
